NOTE ON INTERBANK GIRO

1. Please note that the Applicant and Account Holder need not be the same person. The Applicant refers to the Registered Owner of the vehicle (person/company) who is liable for the renewal of vehicle's road tax. The Account Holder refers to the person/company whose bank account will be used for the GIRO deduction for the payment arrangement with LTA.
2. The Applicant ID can be Singapore NRIC for Singaporean/Permanent Resident; Malaysian NRIC for Malaysian; Foreign Passport for Foreigner other than Malaysian; ACRA Registration Number for Company / Business; Unique Entity Number for Statutory / Professional Body / Club / Society / Ministry.
3. The Applicant will receive a letter to inform him on the status of the GIRO application (i.e. whether successful or rejected). Please allow approximately 4 weeks for the processing of the GIRO application.
4. The Account Holder(s)' bank will make the necessary deductions from the bank account on LTA's instructions. The deduction will be reflected as "LTA" in the passbook/bank statement.
5. One (1) month before the GIRO deduction date, LTA will send a GIRO Payment Schedule to inform the Applicant of the GIRO deduction date and the deadline that all pre-requisite(s) must be met. Please maintain sufficient funds in the bank account for the GIRO deduction to avoid any charges that may be imposed by the bank or by LTA for each failed deduction. Should an unsuccessful deduction occur, the Applicant will receive a notice to renew the road tax by other channels. Late renewal fee will be imposed if a vehicle road tax is renewed after its expiry date.
6. Upon approval, this GIRO arrangement will continue to be in effect until the Applicant writes in to notify LTA to terminate it. To terminate, the Applicant has to write to:

VRL Service Operations Division (Road Tax)
Land Transport Authority
10 Sin Ming Drive
Singapore 575701

LTA reserves the right to terminate the GIRO arrangement at any time without assigning any reasons for such termination.
7. For enquiries on road tax, please contact LTA at tel: 1800-CALL LTA (1800-2255 582).
8. For enquiries on vehicle radio licence, please contact MDA at tel: 1800-478 5478.
