CONDITIONS FOR GRANTING OF PREFERENTIAL ADDITIONAL REGISTRATION FEE (PARF) AND/OR CERTIFICATE OF ENTITLEMENT (COE) REBATE(S)

1. PARF rebate

- a) The PARF Scheme, which is applicable to cars only, is as follows :

Age at Deregistration	PARF Rebate (For cars registered with COEs obtained from May 2002 tender exercise)
Not exceeding 5 years	75% of ARF Paid*
Above 5 years but not exceeding 6 years	70% of ARF Paid*
Above 6 years but not exceeding 7 years	65% of ARF Paid*
Above 7 years but not exceeding 8 years	60% of ARF Paid*
Above 8 years but not exceeding 9 years	55% of ARF Paid*
Above 9 years but not exceeding 10 years	50% of ARF Paid*
Above 10 years	Nil

*For cars that have enjoyed tax incentives such as the Green Vehicle Rebate, Off-Peak Car Rebate, Carbon Emissions-Based Vehicle Scheme (CEVS) Rebate or Vehicular Emissions Scheme (VES) Rebate, the calculation of the PARF rebate will be based on the net ARF, i.e. ARF less rebate enjoyed.

- b) The car must not be more than 10 years old at the time of its deregistration. The age of a car is calculated based on the date of its original registration (locally or overseas, whichever is earlier). For example, if a car was registered on 23 October 2010, it is deemed as having reached a statutory age of 10 years on 22 October 2020. This same car shall be deemed to have reached a statutory age of 5 years on 22 October 2015 and a statutory age of 7 years on 22 October 2017. To be eligible for PARF rebate, the vehicle must be deregistered on or before 22 October 2020.
- c) The car must be licensed at all times, and was not or will not be temporarily unlicensed.
- d) The car must have been a new car at the time of its registration in Singapore or an imported used car that was registered in Singapore on or after 1 September 2007.

2. COE rebate

- a) If a vehicle is deregistered before the expiry of its COE, the COE rebate will be granted based on the Quota Premium (QP) or the Prevailing Quota Premium (PQP) paid, pro-rated to the number of months and days remaining on the vehicle's COE. For a vehicle registered using Category E (Open Category) COE, the COE rebate granted will be pro-rated to the number of months and days remaining on the QP Paid of either the Category E or its corresponding category from the same tender exercise, whichever is lower.
- b) If a vehicle is deregistered within 2 years of its registration for the purpose of export, the COE rebate will be capped at 80% of the QP paid upon registration. For a vehicle registered using Category E (Open Category) COE, the COE rebate granted will be capped at 80% of the Category E QP or the QP of its corresponding category from the same tender exercise, whichever is lower.

3. Utilisation of PARF/COE rebate(s)

- a) The PARF and COE rebate(s) have a validity period of 12 months from the date of the vehicle's deregistration and must be utilised within the validity period.
- b) The PARF rebate can be used to offset the Registration Fee (RF), Additional Registration Fee (ARF), QP, Used Car Surcharge, and CEVS Surcharge or VES Surcharge payable for the registration of a car in the owner's name.
- c) The COE rebate can be used to offset the RF, ARF, QP, Used Car Surcharge, and CEVS Surcharge or VES Surcharge payable for the registration of a vehicle in the owner's name or the PQP payable for revalidating the COE of a vehicle that is currently registered in the owner's name.
- d) The PARF and COE rebate(s) may be transferred together or separately to a third party. A fee of S$15 is payable for the transfer of each rebate. Alternatively, you may apply to encash the PARF and/ or COE rebate(s).
4. The granting of rebate and the determination of the rebate amount is subject to the Registrar's discretion in addition to an applicant complying with the above minimum requirements.

5. Consent to the collection, use or disclosure of personal data
