[#] A vintage vehicle is non-transferable if the Additional Registration Fee (ARF) has not been paid.

* A vintage vehicle which is converted from any Vintage (Restricted) Scheme cannot be converted back to the Vintage (Restricted) Scheme.

An administrative fee of $100 is payable for each conversion. For details on other fees and taxes payable for a vintage vehicle under the various Schemes, please contact the LTA Customer Service Officer at 1800-CALL LTA (1800-2255 582) or visit www.onemotoring.com.sg.

4. Changing Of Vehicle Registration Number Plates

Upon conversion of the vehicle to the Revised Vintage Scheme, the registered owner shall proceed to change the number plates, within 3 calendar days from the conversion date. The number plates must have white letters/figures on red and yellow background. The existing vehicle registration number will be retained. The front number plate must be mounted to a metal bracket and the bracket must in turn be welded onto the vehicle chassis or floorboard. The welding may be carried out by any workshop but must be inspected and approved by an LTA-authorised vehicle inspection centre. Failure to comply with the registration number plate requirement constitutes an offence under the Road Traffic Act. Please contact the LTA Customer Service Officer at 1800-CALL LTA (1800-2255 582) for any query on registration number plate requirement.

5. Sealing / Breaking Of Vehicle Registration Number Plates

- To seal the number plates of vehicle registered under the Vintage (Restricted) Scheme or Revised Vintage Scheme vehicle, the owner must send the vehicle to an LTA-authorised vehicle inspection centre (i.e. VICOM Ltd, STA Inspection Pte Ltd or JIC Inspection Services Pte Ltd). An inspection certificate will be issued to the owner after the number plates are sealed and inspected.
- If the owner wishes to break the vehicle's number plate seals for repair or other works on the vehicle, he/she must first apply to LTA for approval. Any person not authorised by the Registrar of Vehicles and who breaks or tampers with a the vehicle number plate seal shall be liable, upon conviction, to a jail term of up to 3 months, or to a fine of up to $1,000 for the first offence. Subsequent offences carry a jail term of up to 6 months, or a fine of up to $2,000.

6. Day Licence for Vintage (Restricted) Scheme & Revised Vintage Scheme Vehicles

- Vintage (Restricted) Scheme – Up to 28 days in the same calendar year @ $10 per day.
- Revised Vintage Scheme – Up to 28 days in the same calendar year @ $10 per day; and – Up to 17 additional days in the same calendar year @ $20 per day.

A valid Day Licence must be displayed for each day of usage in respect of any Vintage (Restricted) Scheme vehicle or Revised Vintage Scheme vehicle. Days of usage are inclusive of weekends and public holidays.

Day Licences are non-transferable, non-exchangeable, non-refundable and cannot be carried forward to another calendar year. It is a serious offence for anyone to use a Vintage (Restricted) Scheme vehicle or Revised Vintage Scheme vehicle without displaying a valid Day Licence. The driver or registered owner who causes or permits the vehicle to be driven without a valid Day Licence shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be punished with a fine of not exceeding $5,000, and in the case of second or subsequent conviction, a fine of not exceeding $10,000.

7. In-Vehicle Unit

A vintage vehicle is required to have a valid In-Vehicle Unit (IU) installed and a cashcard with sufficient monetary value inserted into the IU if the vehicle is to be used on an Electronic Road Pricing (ERP)-priced road during the ERP operational hours.
